The Reply of President Johnson.

New York, May 15.—The Herald's

Washington special here, it is probable that a very spicy correspondence between Gen. Sherman and Gen. Hallock will be brought to light.

The following is the substance of them:

Gen. Hallock to Gen. Sherman: As you will be in Richmond in a few days, allow me to offer you the hospitalities of my house here, where I shall be gratified to receive you and contribute to make your sojourn here agreeable.

Gen. Sherman to Gen. Hallock: Your proffered hospitality is respectfully declined. I had hoped to pass through Richmond without the painful necessity of meeting you. Your recent advisory dispatch to the War Department is a sufficient explanation.

Gen. Hallock to Gen. Sherman: I regret your declining my invitation and the apparently spirit manifested in your note. If I knew the feeling in Washington at the War Department in reference to your agreement with Johnson, you would appreciate the motive of my dispatch to which you refer. Permit me to assure you of my kind feelings toward you personally, and my high admiration of your services.

Gen. Sherman to Gen. Hallock: I think I understand both the circumstances and the motive sufficiently well to appreciate the motives of your dispatch. You and Mr. Stanton sent me the warning to beware of assassination. I did not then know that the conspirators were themselves threatening assassination.

New York, May 15.—In a recent order Gen. Grant has relieved Maj. Gen. Dana from the command of the Department of Tennessee and ordered him to proceed to his place of residence and report for further orders. Maj. Gen. Warren succeeds Gen. Dana in command.

Two Herald's Montgomery, Ala., correspondents give additional details of the capture of that place.

The place, it will be remembered, was first taken possession of by Gen. Wilson on the grand cavalry raid through Alabama and Georgia during the early part of last month. The prisoners were taken to the prison at Montgomery, and the remainder of the town it was unoccupied by the Union forces from the 11th to 24th ult., at which time the rebels were driven out.

After participating in the capture of Montgomery and again in the capture of the city of Selma, never again to be succeeded by the vile cause of rebellion.

The rebel forces, previous to the evacuation of Montgomery, burned over 35,000 bales of cotton.

This correspondent says the great mass of the people of Alabama are rejoicing at the downfall of the rebellion and their restoration to the Union.

The Herald's Washington special says that the rebels, the brutal dungeon-keepers, escaped just before last from the cell to which they had been confined in the hands of their former brutality. His recapture is regarded as certain.

The Tribune's special has the following: Arrangements are making at the Treasury Department to pay off the 2d and 5th corps, now encamped in the rear of Alexandria, within the next two weeks.

The Government has paid out one hundred and thirty millions for its debt during the month.

The correspondent expects to be in telegraphic communication with Mobile by tomorrow night.

The war files have subsided and therefore the war correspondents have been in the Washington news.

A civilian also came through Virginia on horseback in the track of the 23d corps, and reports that the rebels are in the hands of the Union army.

A few women are still defiant, but the men are subdued, and seem anxious to be let alone for the sake of peace and agriculture, as they were four years ago.

The Tribune's Richmond correspondent says: Hunter was arrested at his home in Essex county by a squad of cavalry under Colonel McIntosh, on the 20th of New York.

The railroad communication between Richmond and the South is being established as fast as possible, but their very little material in the country is to repair with.

The Tribune's Richmond correspondent says: The Union has been a source of undoubted authority that Jeff. Davis will be confined at Fort Lafayette.

The Tribune's Richmond correspondent says: The question as to whether the army will be moved out and which retained is not yet fully decided, but it is probable that those who are captured will be sent to Fort Monroe.

It is believed, however, that in reorganizing the army, an opportunity will be offered for every man who has served and soldier to remain in the service.

This end an order will soon be issued requiring department commanders to ascertain the number of officers desiring to remain in service, and to appoint those who determine their qualifications and report thereon.

New York, May 14.—The Shreveport Special of the 13th, giving an account of the meeting of the western part of the State, says: Col. Flournoy, of Texas, took the lead, and made a most eloquent address. He frequently appealed to the feelings of his auditors, and received their hearty concurrence in his views. The Colonel concluded his oration by glowing words on the occasion of the meeting.

A writer in the Houston Telegraph and Advertiser says that a person who made an English and French for recognition under the threat, if not complied with, that the South will join the North in asserting and carrying out the Monroe doctrine.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Marquis de Montebello was yesterday introduced to the President by the acting Secretary of State, and delivered his credentials as Minister of the Emperor of the French. The Marquis made some remarks on the occasion, of which the following is a translation:

Mr. President: I have the honor to place in your hands a letter from the Emperor of the French, which accredits me in the character of Extraordinary Ambassador to the United States.

Excuse me, I ask for what my new year's determination I have made to give to this distinguished mark of your confidence, I can attribute it only to the recollection of the which already attach me to this country. The Emperor has entrusted me with the honor of representing him in this country, and I am proud to have received numerous proofs, have made me appear without doubt better prepared than another to serve as the interpreter of the sentiments which animate the Imperial Government toward the Government and people of the United States. In fact, the glorious traditions, the importance whereof we maintain with pride, do not permit that France should ever be indifferent to the peace of this republic. The immense interests which every day develop themselves more fully, will draw together and more closely this noble and ancient alliance.

I am happy to bring hither on this solemn occasion the loyal and frank expression of the wishes which the Emperor, my sovereign, has expressed for the complete restoration of peace and concord on the continent of America. The whole of France sympathizes with the United States in its efforts to maintain the peace and concord on the continent of America. The whole of France sympathizes with the United States in its efforts to maintain the peace and concord on the continent of America.

The President replied as follows: Marquis: I cannot fail to welcome, as a diplomatic representative of France, and as a friend of the United States, the Marquis to the United States by those ties incident to family connection and long previous official residence in this country, and the sympathy of the United States in fact, and the sympathy of the United States in fact, and the sympathy of the United States in fact.

Dr. J. B. Moore, a rebel from Tennessee, who was sent to Canada last year, has been endeavoring to procure the return of his property, but failed to establish his loyalty.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—At the trial of the conspirators yesterday the first witness called upon the stand was John Lee, of the Washington detective police, who testified that he had been ordered by the conspirators to stand trial for treason or quit the country as an alternative, and is now supposed to be in Canada.

New York, May 15.—The Tribune's special says, the report that was in the circular in Germany, of counterfeited United States bonds, grow out of the jealousy of the population of Germany against the United States, who are now holding in Germany alone about $300,000,000 of our 5-20 bonds, and the general demand has been so great for these bonds.

Exchange is one-half per cent. in our favor. It is a source of gratification to our Government that European capitalists, who have been holding in Germany alone about $300,000,000 of our 5-20 bonds, and the general demand has been so great for these bonds.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The trial of the conspirators will continue to-morrow in open court, reporters being admitted yesterday. The Court will request the lawyers to the reporters to omit the publication of such evidence as may be deemed prejudicial to the Government.

A large amount of important testimony has been taken, which will not be published for the present, as its bearings as to the guilt of the conspirators is not yet determined. The examination of other witnesses followed.
